FUNDING AWARDS.

- Project co-lead for a QR Research and Knowledge Exchange Grant (Enhancing Research Culture). £5,939. Project: Demystifying Academia: a workshop series for postgraduates and early-career researchers. This project involves a series of 3 workshops geared toward improving access to theology and philosophy careers for postgraduates and early-career researchers, especially those from under-represented groups.

- Project lead for an AHRC Impact Acceleration Account Grant. £1,988. Project: Philosophy Smash with Henry! See below for more details.
- Leverhulme Early Career Fellowship (£100,982) from the Leverhulme Trust and Isaac Newton Trust. 2015-2018.
- Jacobsen Studentship (£8,000) from the Royal Institute of Philosophy. 2014-2015.
- Durham Doctoral Studentship (£35,196), University of Durham. 2011-2014.

PHILOSOPHY SMASH WITH HENRY!

I run a project that produces short (max ten minutes) video interviews with philosophers. They can be enjoyed by everyone, but they're designed for use in schools. They're mainly aimed at ages 9-13 (KS2-3) but can be used with older children too. Each one comes with a lesson plan and other materials:

<https://henrytaylorphilosophy.com/philosophy-smash-with-henry/>.

This project is funded by the AHRC (grant number AH/X003388/1) and in partnership with SAPERE P4C, an organisation that provides philosophy resources for schools (<https://www.sapere.org.uk/>).

MSC PROGRAMME DESIGN

I co-designed an interdisciplinary MSc called Philosophy, Mental Health and Psychology at the University of Birmingham, which launched in 2023. This programme features teaching from the Department of Philosophy and the School of Psychology. For more information, see here.

PUBLIC ENGAGEMENT

(All materials available at: henrytaylorphilosophy.com/public-outreach/)

The Philosophers' Yard.

I am a trustee for The Philosophers' Yard (pending formal ratification). This is a Birmingham-based charity dedicated to philosophy public engagement. The Philosophers' Yard runs events that bring professional philosophers together with artists and poets.

Public Engagement Articles

- (2026) Human vision: what we actually see – and don't see – tells us a lot about consciousness. The Conversation.
- (2024) Do aliens exist? We studied what scientists really think. The Conversation. Co-authored with Peter Vickers and Sean McMahon.
- (2024) Babies and animals can't tell us if they are conscious – but philosophers and scientists are working on an answer. The Conversation.
- (2024) Why robots can be culturally insensitive – and how scientists are trying to fix it. The Conversation. Co-authored with Masoumeh Mansouri.

- (2021) Sometimes, paying attention means we see the world less clearly. Psyche/Aeon.
- (2020) Visual illusion that may help explain consciousness: new study. The Conversation. Co-authored with Bilge Sayim.
- (2020) Blindsight: a strange neurological condition that could help us explain consciousness. The Conversation.
- (2019) What is a species? The most important concept in all of biology is a complete mystery. The Conversation.
- (2019) Microbiology and the species problem: response to Jerry Coyne. Medium.

Discussion in the media.

- (2025) Scientists now say MILLIONS of planets could be teeming with life. MailOnline. Article by Jonathan Chadwick, which discusses some of the work by Peter Vickers' team (which includes me) on extraterrestrial life.
- (2025) How studying babies' minds is prompting us to rethink consciousness. New Scientist. This is an article by David Robson, that discusses some of my work, amongst others.
- (2025) On her popular science YouTube channel, Sabine Hossenfelder has discussed some work by Peter Vickers' group (of which I am a member) on scientific consensus.

Radio interviews and podcasts

- (2025) I was a guest for The RE Podcast. The episode is called "The one about AI".
- (2024) I was a guest on CapeTalk, a radio station based on Cape Town.
- (2024) I was a guest on the Fun Kids Science podcast for Fun Kids Radio.
- (2024) An interview with me about robotics is part of AI Futures, a University-wide public engagement project at the University of Birmingham.
- (2023) I was a guest on the Parker's Pensées podcast. The episode is called "The philosophy of mind vs the science of consciousness."
- (2021) Philosophy and cognitive science. Free Range Podcast.
- (2021) I was a guest on the Voice of Islam radio station, I spoke about Aristotelian metaphysics and Islamic philosophy.
- (2020) I was a guest on the Voice of Islam radio station, I spoke about emotions and ethics.
- (2018) Will we ever be able to apparate? Fantastic Research. University of Birmingham podcast.

Public events

- (2026) I gave a public talk at Winterbourne house and gardens on whether robots are the future.
- (2026) I was a panellist at a screening and panel discussion of Ex Machina, an Alex Garland film about robots, relationships, trust, and the Turing test. The other panellists were Lucy Olser and Michael Quinn. Supported by the Royal Institute of Philosophy.
- (2025) I gave a talk about robots to Christopher Whitehead Language College in Worcester.
- (2025) I spoke about robots at the University's Ten Talks programme. Ten Talks is a prestigious series of short TED-style talks by Birmingham academics.
- (2025) I gave a short talk on robots as part of the University of Birmingham's 125th Anniversary programme of events.

- (2025) Are robots the future? This was a public engagement event at Oxfam, in Swansea. Funded by the Royal Institute of Philosophy.
- (2024) Can AI Fix Our Care Crisis? This was a panel discussion of the impact of technology on the UK care crisis, held at The Exchange in Birmingham.
- (2024) Pint of Science. Pub-based event in Birmingham. Me and my colleague Andrew Bremner (from psychology) chatted about when infants become conscious.
- (2024) Botbuilders! This was a family-oriented event, where children built robots out of craft materials. It was based on my work on cultural robotics with Masoumeh Mansouri.
- (2023) What is Consciousness? Two answers. This was a public talk for The Philosophers' Yard, which is a philosophy public engagement philosophy organisation based in Birmingham. It took place at The Exchange in central Birmingham.
- (2022) New Directions in the Science of Consciousness. University of Birmingham. Public event featuring talks by Davinia Fernández Espejo (Birmingham), Jack Lyons (Glasgow) and Heater Browning (Southampton). Co-organised with Francesco Antilici. Sponsored by the Royal Institute of Philosophy.
- (2016) What can zombies teach us about consciousness? Public lecture for The Royal Institute of Philosophy. It took place at Darwin College, Cambridge.

Events in schools

- (2025). I talked about robots at Christopher Whitehead Language College and Sixth Form in Worcester.
- (2025). I gave a talk on animal rights at a Philosophy for Schools event. Several schools local to Birmingham attended.
- (2025) Philosophy Smash! Philosophy Interviews in the Classroom. This is part of an online webinar session called Philosophy in the Classroom, which was an event that forms part of the Philosophy Matters fortnight in March.
- (2025) Philosothon. This is a philosophy-focussed competition for school children (years 9-13). I was a judge.

Press releases, blogposts, and other

- (2024) My work was featured in the University of Birmingham's AI Futures activity booklet. This is an artist-led activity booklet aimed at families, containing lots of fun artificial intelligence based activities.
- (2024) What does it mean for a robot to be cultured? Imperfect Cognitions (blogpost).
- (2024) Researchers propose a new way to identify when babies become conscious. Press release for the University of Birmingham.
- (2021) What is the relationship between your conscious mind and yourself? Blogpost for the University of Birmingham.
- (2021) Computational indeterminacy: what is your computer really doing? Blogpost for the Intercontinental Academia Project.

SELECTED CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS

Invited

- (2025). My cultural robot: culture and robot design. University of Swansea.
- (2024). My cultural robot: culture and robot design. University of Cardiff.
- (2024). Should psychiatric kinds be eliminated? Trauma, Depression, and Psychiatry. University of Nottingham.
- (2023). Powerful qualities, empowering qualities, and colour. John Heil @ 80. University of Durham.
- (2023). Experiences are subjects instantiating properties at times. The Nature of Conscious Subjects and Their Experiences. University of Fribourg.
- (2022) The mind's eye: natural kinds and the science of working memory. Natural Kinds in the Mind. LSE.
- (2021) Compound powerful qualities. The Mereology of Potentiality. University of Durham.
- (2020) Attention: one thing or many? Neural Oscillations Research Group. University of Birmingham.
- (2019) Naïve Realism without disjunctivism. University of Oxford.
- (2019) Naïve realism without disjunctivism. Royal Institute of Philosophy Seminar Series. Keele University.
- (2019) Peripheral vision, attention and consciousness. Glasgow University.
- (2018) A powerful new anomalous monism. Umeå University.
- (2018) Modal combinatorialism is consistent with S5. Dubrovnik Metaphysics Conference.
- (2016) Powerful Qualities and Pure Powers. Moral Sciences Club. University of Cambridge.

Refereed

- (2025) The problem with honeybees: polymorphisms and the metaphysics of species. British Society for the Philosophy of Science. Glasgow University.
- (2022) What is it like to be a baby? Natural kinds and infant consciousness. Philosophy of Science Association. University of Pittsburgh.
- (2019) The mystery of the missing letter: resolving the identity crowding debate. European Society for Philosophy and Psychology. Athens, Greece.
- (2019) A new visual effect reveals the relation between attention and consciousness. Joint Session of the Mind Association and the Aristotelian Society. University of Durham
- (2018) Two notions of kindhood: is disjunctivism inconsistent with psychology? European Society for Philosophy and Psychology. Rijeka.
- (2018) Russellian monism without panpsychism Eastern APA. Savannah, Georgia. Commentator: Nicholas Rimell.
- (2017) Colour Constancy, Cerebral Achromatopsia and Perception as a Natural Kind. European Society for Philosophy and Psychology. University of Hertfordshire.
- (2017) Conscious experiences as Kimian Events. European Congress of Analytic Philosophy. LMU Munich.

PHD FUNDING PANEL MEMBERSHIP

Assessor and panellist for Midlands 4 Cities PhD funding applications. 2021-2022.

Note: Midlands 4 Cities is an organisation that assigns AHRC funding to doctoral students across eight Midlands-based universities.

ADMINISTRATION, PROFESSIONAL SERVICE, AND INDICATORS OF ESTEEM

Learned Societies

- Programme committee member for British Society for the Philosophy of Science (2025-present).
- Steering committee member for Centre for Scientific Community Opinion Polling and Evaluation (C-SCOPE). This project involves over 80 universities across the world (the PL is Peter Vickers). The goal is to develop a new method for measuring scientific consensus. I am the advisor for the aspects of the project involving (the philosophy of) psychology. (2022-present).
- Fellow of the Intercontinental Academia Project 4 (Intelligence and Artificial Intelligence). This is a global network of interdisciplinary researchers, supported by the Institute for Advanced Study (UBIAS) network, focussed on intelligence and AI.
- Fellow of the Higher Education Futures institute (HEFi). 2019-present.
- Visiting Research Fellow, Washington University St Louis (Missouri). 2018.

Admin roles. (University of Birmingham)

- M4C unit lead. 2024-2025. This involves supporting staff and applicants in applying for PhD funding, and also assessing the applications.
- Programme lead for MSc Philosophy, Mental Health, and Psychology. (2023-present).
- Postgraduate Senior Tutor (2018-2020 and 2021-2023).
- Assessment and Progress Lead (2019).

External Examining.

- External examiner for the University of Oxford (PPE programme). 2025-present.

PhD Examining.

- External PhD examiner for King's College London, Nottingham University, Western University (Ontario) and Università Vita-Salute San Raffaele.

Conference and Workshop organisation

- Consciousness in challenging cases: Toward an interdisciplinary methodology. Sole organiser. Supported by the Institute of Advanced Studies. January 2021. University of Birmingham.
- Objects and Properties: generating dialogue. June 2018. University of Cambridge
- E. J. Lowe memorial conference. Joint organiser. July 2014. University of Durham.
- Perceiving the light workshop. Joint organiser. March 2014. University of Durham.
- Attention and consciousness. Joint organiser. June 2013. University of Durham.
- Concept acquisition and language. Joint organiser. July 2013. University of Durham.
